RABBITS AND SQUIRRELS
ARE PLENTIFUL.

Hunters say that the outlook for rabbits this year was never so encouraging. Squirrels also, have been found to be plentiful in the woods.
Last year was a great squirrel year, and the sudden appearance of so many of these little animals last year was a surprise to the hunters, as for several years squirrels, like other game in Kentucky, have been diminishing. One year's closed season on squirrels and every woodland in the State would be full of them. Dove shooting will be about as usual, with the outlook for better sport this year than usual. Doves should be protected for at least two years.

LADIES OF BAPTIST CHURCH TO GIVE "CIRCLE EXCURSION."

Encouraged by the success of the excursion to Frankfort, on last Tuesday, the ladies of the Baptist Church of Paris, are planning to give one of the "Circle Excursions" which were such a popular feature some years ago. The trip will comprise a rail excursion via the F. & C. to Georgetown, from there to High Bridge via the Cincinnati Southern, and from High Bridge the excursionists will be taken a trip down the Kentucky River to Frankfort, where ample time will be afforded for a visit to the State Capitol and other points of interest. The return trip will be made by rail via the F. & C. from Frankfort. The number of tickets will be necessarily limited to the carrying capacity of the river steambot from High Bridge to Frankfort, but it is thought accommodations can be afforded for a large crowd. The date for the excursion will be announced through the press later on, but will be some time in the early part of August.

DUSTY DAYS IN PARIS.

Merchants of Paris are complaining of the clouds of dust blown into their stores from Main street, where the resurfacing work under way has left the limestone foundation exposed to the breezes. Scores of Main street stores have been forced to keep their front doors closed in order to protect their stocks. The use of street hose has in some instances, somewhat alleviated the trouble in certain quarters, but, in the main, the situation is one that ought to call for immediate action upon the part of the city authorities. The city has a sprinkling cart that has been enjoying a vacation since the street resurfacing work set in. Why not sprinkle the street daily during this dry weather and save the merchants much worry and trouble?
